

John Robinson Consulting Services

“Thinking Tasters”

14 & 15 March 2018 at the Abode Hotel Woden, ACT

This series of capsule courses allows you to take control of your professional development, providing you with some simple tips and tools to build your strategic, critical and design thinking skills at work in the public sector.

This series of workshops will help you:

- . upgrade your analytical tool kit to know enough about what the different thinking frameworks methods offer
- . know what public service challenges they lend themselves to, when to use them, in what combinations and at what stage to use them
- . understand how different choices will play out in the real world
- . turn evidence and insights into actionable advice to government decision makers
- . deliver better outcomes on the ground

March 14. Morning

From 9.00 a.m. – 12.30 p.m. unpack strategic thinking and how to effectively apply it

March 14. Afternoon

From 1.00 p.m. – 4.30 p.m. discover the key elements of critical thinking and when to use them to greatest effect at work

March 15. Morning

From 9.00 a.m. – 12.30 p.m. explore the use of design thinking as a problem solving approach

March 15. Afternoon

From 1.00 p.m. to 4.30 p.m. Case study to practice some of the tips and techniques identified in Modules 1 through 3.

Costs

Each module is stand-alone and you can sign up to attend at a cost of $400 per module per person (inc GST). If you sign up for the first three sessions, you will be able to attend the final session at no cost.

Venue: Abode Hotel Woden, 10 Bowes Street, Phillip ACT 2606
