

Corrigendum to the report of the Robodebt Royal Commission

The report of the Royal Commission into the Robodebt Royal Commission was first published on 7 July 2023.

An updated edition was published 11 July 2023 which contains the following changes.

Volume 1

Inside front cover (also volumes 2 and 3), the copyright has been changed from 2022 to 2023.

Page 218, beneath the subheading, first line: 2019 has been changed to 2017.

Page 257, Chapter 8 name has had 'on' added, ie. The Robodebt Scheme rolls on Page 314, paragraph 3 of Section 9.3. The paragraph was deleted and replaced with:

In fact, there is reason to reject the contemporaneous diary notes as accurate records of what happened when, and reason to think that both Mr Robert's notes and Mr Morrison's chronology are wrong about a meeting on 7 December and the matters recorded as discussed in it.

Volume 2

Page 430, under the subheading Sidestepping legal advice, first line: advice3 has been changed to advice.

Page 435, first paragraph, first line: DHS has been changed to DSS.

Volume 3 - Appendix

Page xiii – the repetition of Damien Brazel with a different job title has been deleted.

Page xiii, in the column next to Cameron Brown, replaced Department of Human Services with Department of Social Services.

Page xlviii, fourth paragraph, the words 'Data and analytics' at the end have been deleted. Instead, a subheading has been added between the fourth and fifth paragraphs, i.e: 1.4 Data and analytics.
